

MAREMMAMARO

0.700 L bottle

Category: bitter

Alcohol content: 35% vol

Visual exam: intense ruby-garnet

Olfactory test: ethereal and of a great complexity, it remembers rhubarb and figs' jam, candied fruits. To a more careful listening, it leaves room for delicate notes of wild flowers and citrus fruits.

Taste: Elegant and well balanced, pleasantly bitter, long finish

As in a walk in the Maremma at the end of October, the green tones of the scrub alternate with the orange and burnished tones of the shrubs, and at times the red berries on the bushes can be seen; similarly, in this bitter, the green, balsamic and fresh tones of juniper, liquorice and mint alternate with the citrus tones of cinchona and bitter orange, skilfully balanced, followed by the warm tones of myrtle, blackthorn and Maremma berries.
