

Tuscany London Dry Gin "PRISCILLA"

0.700 L bottle

Altea, Grindelia, Melissa and again: Abrotano, Absinthe, Thyme and Tanaceto. They sound like names of fairies and their servants brought together to dance on Maremma fields on a midsummer night. Here is the magical atmosphere created by this gin where the Juniper Toscano are combined like in a magic potion with aromatic plants from Monte Amiata, mountain of fire, home of energy.

A short distance from the fairy holes, in a valley hidden from the main roads communication routes, the vapours of Priscilla's alembic mingle with the fog on autumn mornings, and offer the autumn mornings, and offer the sky magical scents on pleasant spring days.
