The best of licorice

Out of the best roots of Glycyrrhiza glabra, Dolce Nera is brought to light.

Licorice used to be highly appreciated 5000 years by Egyptians, Assyrians and Chinese thanks to its curative and aphrodisiac properties.

Hippocrates suggested using the prestigious root to cure cough, while tradition had it that licorice was used as a multi-faceted pharmaceutical remedy.

Dolce Nera is a surprisingly uniquely- flavoured liqueur. When you drink it, it is love at first sight thanks to its pitch black colour, its lingering fragrance, its intense, silky, softly spicy taste. Thus, Dolce Nera is among the top-range liqueurs of its category.

Not only is Dolce Nera a strong digestive drink, but also its sweet and aromatic taste makes it suit perfectly either before dinner or while preparing ice cream and desserts.

Finally, if mixed with one of the products of the collection Five Senses, both its flavour and refined nature will be exalted.

Silver Medal 2015 - CWSA di Hong Kong
Silver Medal 2017 - Concours Mondial de Bruxelles

We suggest you serve it when still chilled.
