Gavi DOCG

Gavi is a famous white wine DOCG zone in Piedmont. The grapes come from vineyards in the area of Gavi village, where this vine is traditionally grown. The typical pale yellow colour has green hints, the bouquet and taste are pleasant and fresh. Outstanding with any sh-based dishes. It's best enjoyed young.

Variety: 100% Cortese.

Vineyards: located around Gavi village in Monferrato area.

Winemaking: the hand-picked grapes are soft-pressed and follows temperature-controlled alcoholic fermentation. It ages on the lees for 3 months in steel tank.

Alcohol content: 12% vol.

Tasting notes: straw yellow colour with green reexes. Nose fruity and oreal with scents of golden apple and acacia ower. The taste is fresh and pleasant with a savoury nish.

Pairing: ideal with sh-based dishes, sushi and as aperitif.
