DI ROSA

From a small bakery in 1982 to the global market

Born as a small local pastry shop, today we are a technologically advanced manufacturing company, structured to meet the demands of international distribution with precision. Craftsmanship, for us, is not a thing of the past but the heart of every recipe: thanks to Industry 4.0 technologies, we have made absolute quality scalable, ensuring an impeccable product at every production volume.

Beyond taste, reliability

Full traceability, robust logistics, and state-of-the-art freshness-preserving packaging make us the ideal competitive partner for those seeking excellence without operational compromise.
