

CARUS

ROBÈO

IGT TOSCANA ROSSO CABERNET SAUVIGNON

Robeo, from the Latin word ruber, that means red, is an elegant wine with a strong personality. It is harmonious and elegant with marked tannins that give to palate unique sensations.

GRAPE - 100% Cabernet Sauvignon

ALCOHOL CONTENT - 13,5-14%

TRAINING SYSTEM - Spurred cordon and Guyot

PRODUCTION - 50 quintals/ha

TERRITORY AND ALTITUDE - The area is purely hilly, characterised by averagely clayey soils, rich in alberese and galestro, respectively, the main factors responsible for the longevity and elegance of the wines, with a good presence of river pebbles that give the wines a good structure. The different exposure of the vineyards, which are located between 190 and 300 metres above sea level, makes possible to obtain a great organoleptic complexity

HARVEST - Harvest is hand-made and placed in 18 kg boxes to maintain the grape integrity and quality

AGEING - Aged in French oak barrels

TASTING NOTES -

Colour: Deep ruby with violet reflections

Nose: Rich, elegant, with notes of ripe fruit berries linked to notes of graphite, vanilla, tobacco and cocoa

Palate: Deep and elegant with marked tannins the palate giving unique sensations

PAIRINGS - Florentine steak, roast suckling lamb with artichokes and peas
