MONTEPULCIANO
D'ABRUZZO D.O.P.

The Warrior of Capestrano is a symbol of the proud past and traditions of the Abruzzo region; discovered while ploughing the ground of a vineyard, the statue is now housed in the Museo Nazionale d'Abruzzo in Chieti.

Abruzzo, the land of origin of this superb Italian vine variety, is the ideal terroir for producing very high quality fruit and superior wines. Our Montepulciano offers the nose aromas of blackberry and sour cherry, followed by intriguing hints of violet, hazelnut, black pepper and liquorice. Well-structured, suave and persistent, it is perfect not only with traditional lamb or braised beef dishes, but also with eastern cuisine and especially sweet and sour dishes.
