

Tea

Peach and Melon
Lemon and Tangerine

Made in Sicily, Italy

Peach and Melon
Lemon and Tangerine

Super Jin BIO Line

Super Jin is a brand of Divino Amore a young, dynamic and resourceful enterprise, ready to catch any changes and opportunities of the global market in order to offer the best of Italian productive survey. It was born out of entrepreneur Barbara passion for her country, its inkling, its living soul with multiple expressions, its connection with the land that tells the story of man and its traditions.

Graduated in economics and commerce, she has lived a long time abroad, in France, Britain and Spain, acquiring a perfect command of foreign languages, English, French and Spanish. The professional activities focused on export, have gained extensive experience on which she has founded a solid foundation for the company " Divino Amore."

In made in Italy, the variety of products is one of the sources of pride of the "Bel Paese" country where the history of the territories is closely linked to good food and good drink, which for Barbara are the fabric of daily life.

Presenting these excellences to the world, is the goal to be achieved with the determination and professional expertise that can tell in so many ways the world outside Italy knowing its taste preferences.

From this basis the idea of developing a new project regarding two Sicilian Organic teas, collaborating with a renowned Sicilian producer company, conceiving and designing a special label for children with a new brand

Super Jin "The Children's aperitif."

A special organic tea for children is born, from Sicilian organic resources and using natural Sicilian spring water. It is a new and novel idea for children to be able to share with their families and a new possibility to expand markets and open new ones with these unique Sicilian Organic products.

The world of children's drinks can be healthy, tasty and above all fun.

That's why a different brand was created: Super Jin "The Children's aperitif."

The choice was made starting from a careful examination of foreign market trends, different but precise in terms of predominant tastes albeit in the variations of current fashions. This was followed by a thorough search for products and raw materials of guaranteed quality capable of coping with the selective demands of the overseas market.

The idea behind the brand is to reassure parents by offering their children a drink linked to the concept of healthy drinking, drinking Organic and "Made in Sicily"