
FLUID

Mobile App

Overview

FLUID (Fast Loading Utility for Intelligent Distribution) is a new mobile application designed to enable drivers to seamlessly manage loading reservations directly from their smartphones. With its simple and secure interface, drivers can manage their reservations effortlessly without ever needing to leave their tankers as they approach the oil depot.

The application features a scalable and modular design, focusing on the interaction with a new module of the Nuovo Petrol system.

Load Booking

Scheduled Shipment

Notification System

Occupacy Parking Status

Cross-platform Application

Link to Google Maps

Features

- Loading reservations directly from the mobile app when in proximity to the depot
- View of the driver's entire scheduled shipments
- Instant call-to-load notifications
- Updated view of the parking occupancy status
- Direct link to Google Maps

Benefits

- Time optimisation
- Ease to use
- Increased safety
- Instant communication