BORSA VINI ITALIANI WARSAW

The 9th edition

MESSAGE FROM THE AMBASSADOR OF ITALY

Embassy of Italy
Warsaw

A great wine is the result of intuition, passion, instinct, experience and technical skills. Each wine expresses the characteristics of its vintage, the peculiarities of its location and the fullest potential of the varieties, thanks to particular natural conditions like sun exposure, heat and humidity.

Wine is a product of the Italian culture: the several grape varieties and wine brands, in fact, represent the local diversity which is the real strength of our Country.

There is so much to appreciate and discover in a simple glass of wine: a unique and authentic heritage; an extraordinary biodiversity; the strength of the territory; a great entrepreneurship with passion for the tradition and, at the same time, an eye to the future and to technological innovations.

In general, Italian wine producers and companies have an important role in the wine market, extending know-how and commitment to a high-quality production. Italian wine is particularly appreciated here in Poland, where it ranks first in import statistics.

I am therefore delighted to welcome you to the Ninth Edition of the "Borsa Vini Italiani", attended by 34 wineries from 12 regions of Italy. I am sure they will be pleased to let you taste their product through an imaginary journey into Italian wine-growing and wine-making culture and tradition.

When visiting "Borsa Vini", please remember that Italy can tell the story of its roots through the history of its wine growers.

Luca Franchetti Pardo
Ambassador of Italy in Poland

MESSAGE FROM THE DIRECTOR OF THE ITALIAN TRADE AGENCY IN WARSAW

Dear Friends,

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the IX edition of BORSA VINI ITALIANI in Warsaw, wine tasting event organized by ITA - Italian Trade Agency for Polish and Lithuanian importers and distributors, which involves 34 companies from Italy and showcases over 160 wines and spirits of 12 Italian regions.

Italian wines are well known for quality and diversity in types, colors, and flavors. Those are the underlying factors that give them reputation and high rankings worldwide, making Italy one of the most appreciated wine maker country in the world.

In 2022 Italy's wine production kept the global leadership with over 50 million hectoliters. While Italian wine exports reached 7.9 billion euros in value (+9.8% compared to 2021) with 22 million hectoliters sold abroad.

Italy is the 1st Poland's supplier of wine with a market share of 27%. In the last five years Poland's imports of wine from Italy have grown at an average rate of 12.1% per year, achieved a record value of 102.9 million euros in 2022 (+6.0% year on year).

Italy is also the Lithuania's top wine supplier with a 32.7% market share and 89.5 million euros of imported wine in 2022, although a large part of the wine is re-exported to other countries.

The event schedule includes a masterclass led by the Italian expert Mr. Eros Teboni, WSA Best Sommelier of the World 2018, and Mr. Wojciech Bońkowski, the first Polish Master of Wine, who will present their own selection of wines chosen among those brought to this edition of Borsa Vini.

Then a "walking around" tasting session will follow. Through the Italian companies stands you will have the chance to taste marvelous Italian wines, learn more about them, get your personal impression and discuss any potential collaborations with the wineries' representatives.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA FONTANELLE

The Fontanelle farm extends between Chianciano and Pienza. It produces a prestigious selection of DOCG CHIANTI and IGT TOSCANA wines, which have joined the family tradition of extra virgin organic olive oil.

The wine production, which is exclusively from the owner's vineyard, is intentionally limited.

The choice of looking after small areas of land containing the best characteristics of soil, the optimum position and the decision to plant native vineyards with a density of 5-6000 groves per hectare have awarded the owner with high quality wines that are among the more traditional Tuscan classics, but well-structured and complex.

AZIENDA AGRICOLA SALLEMI GIOVANNI

SALLEMI

Behind our wine, there is first of all a family history: a history of choices, tests and errors that slowly lighten the way, a history of social changes through generations, of movements. A history of long laps of life and constant return to the places of memory. The memory of that child who, at the age of four, pounded the grapes in the millstone of his father, who, as a game, then made him handle the screw press. That child is me, Giovanni, and my father, who built the millstone, was called Francesco. The current vineyard, planted in the 1970s, is located in Granieri, a hamlet of Caltagirone. Long before that, my grandfather, who from Vittoria (RG) arrived in Granieri in search of a good land to cultivate, took a land of Baron Silvestri, in which he planted grapes of the Calaulisi, Frappato, Rossiniuri and Turribiancu varieties, collected and mixed together at the end of September. When there was an economic opportunity to buy a land, my grandfather and my father took one in a place called Petrascritta. This land unfortunately turned out not to be suitable for the vineyard, as the wine produced from there, punctually around April, took the road to become vinegar. Petrascritta was thus sold. The care and attention of my father, having experienced the past failure, was fundamental in choosing this time a good land, the current one: in the hills, exposed at noon, partly clayey and partly sandy, 350 meters above the sea. That land began to give great satisfaction, yet the wine for a long time was sold only in bulk and consumed locally.

Villa Colle

A forest 1,000 meters above sea level hides vines thought to be extinct. Villa Colle rediscovers and replants by cuttings two hectares of vines dating back to 1011 AD. With Vatican archives we know that nuns cultivated Magliocca for religious purposes and more. A century of history where Pope Clement VII will order the monastery to be set on fire because "Now the devil resides within the walls". This and many other stories are part of Villa Colle wine, from the nuns to the Vatican to the music of maestro Gioachino Rossini.

Once upon a time there was a local doctor, Vittorio Colacino, who apart from taking care of his patients, also enjoyed growing an ancient vineyard. This Vineyard produced a wine known as "BRITTO", intense with a spicy sour black cherry perfume and...

From such a passion for earth and life, the Colacino Company was founded. The company is nowadays managed by Dr Colacino's children: Mauro and Maria Teresa; beyond sharing the same passion for wine inherited from their father, they also introduced a touch of innovation and managerial skills to the entire production line, firmly determined to constantly improve an already highly appreciated product respecting its history.

Fattoria il Muro is situated in the very heart of Tuscany, in Arezzo. It has been owned by the Pancaro family for more than 200 years and its land has always been used for vines cultivation thanks to its favorable microclimate and particular environmental conditions. The soil rich in marl and the temperate climate provide a microhabitat that improves the organoleptic qualities and the health of the grapes.

Federico the last 5th generation, agronomist, is engaged in updating the production techniques while keeping up the old traditions, using only traditional Tuscan chestnut wood barrels for ageing. His main goal is to create enjoyable and easy drinkable wines, fresh and simple that could be universally appreciated by any palate.

FIRRIATO

Authentic Terroir

Terroir, identity, quality, pure sicilian. Firriato, among the largest quality wine producers that, in less than three decades, has been successful in finding its own original and a specific style of production. # IL PALAZZO

IL PALAZZO

Il Palazzo has an ancient history lasting for 80 years and it has seen three generations of succession to devote his time to agriculture. Banelli's bought the entire estate, including the Mediaeval Borough, in the 40's. Over 105 acres, the property stands on a high hill 300-400 meters above sea level.

In the center part there is the medieval hamlet with the swimming – pool, the farmhouse surrounded by 42 hectares of vineyards, 6,000 olive trees, woods and arable land. If the atmosphere all around the Estate Il Palazzo recalls modesty of rural life of the past, the cellar, the heart of Banelli's property meets the most modern technological needs and the highest quality research. The wines, produced with the assistance of technicians within the company supported by a team of external consultants, are aged in precious French oak barrels, that give vibrant colours, harmonious flavors, roundness and spicy notes."

INCANTALUPI

In 1948 Antonio and Lorenzo Cinquepalmi, who had owned Masseria Incantalupi, here in Puglia, for some years, decided to plant the first five hectares of vines. The first varietals planted were Negroamaro, Primitivo and Malvasia Nera. All the holdings of the company, now extending over more than 150 hectares, changed over to organic farming, using exclusively organic fertilizers and abolishing all weedkillers and insecticides. The Masseria Incantalupi is synonymous with family traditions, of a close link to the territory but also with prestigious wines which express the perfume, smells and tastes of the land from which they originate.

MARCAZZAN – HOC OPUS, HIC LABOR

MARCAZZAN

HOC OPUS, HIC LABOR

"This is the task, this is the toil"
(Virgil, Aeneid, VI, 129)

My name is Fabio Marcazzan and in 2016 I realized my dream of opening my business and creating my wines. My winery stands in San Giovanni Ilarione, a small village in the foothills east of Verona, at the foot of a land of volcanic origin, the acidity of which encourages vine growth, producing a wine with unique, structured and lingering aromas made with a semi-craft footprint.

Lessini mountains. It is here that my passion started, after years spent growing and harvesting, I decided to embark on a personal journey, aware that the territory offered the right resources to conduct this search: an extraordinary microclimate, an excellent geology and a team of qualified people ready to support me.

MOSSI 1558

Mossi Winery has a long history: we have been producing wine since 1558.

We are located in Ziano Piacentino (Emilia-Romagna, Italy), where we grow many traditional varieties, such as Barbera and Croatina (blended together they become Gutturnio, the most popular red wine in the province of Piacenza), Ortrugo and Malvasia di Candia Aromatica (white grapes). Over the last few decades we have been taking care of Malvasia Rosa, a very rare variety produced only by three wineries in the world. We also have an experimental vineyard where we preserve more than 20 local grapes, collaborating with the University of Piacenza.

The Estate was founded in 1998. Up to 2011 all the grape production had been sold to "LA GERLA", Alessandro's father (Sergio) estate to produce his high quality Brunello di Montalcino. When unfortunately, in 2011, Mr. Sergio Rossi died, Alessandro took the decision to stop selling the whole grape production, and to keep for himself the best of it, to produce Brunello di Montalcino under his own label.

The estate is located in the north side of Montalcino and directly manage 5.3 hectares approved to produce Brunello di Montalcino.

Tradition, passion and respect for the environment are the values that move the Caggiano family in the production of wines since 1970.

Sella delle Spine was born in Taurasi, a small town in Irpinia located in the middle of the Calore Valley by the love for wine of a family that, while remaining anchored in the Irpinia tradition and its territory, approaches to new technologies with the aim of creating a wine with a strong personality and hints linked to the own land."

TENUTA AMADIO

We make our wines in Monfumo, in the heart of the Asolo hills. Our estate (20 hectares of land, 12 of which are cultivated with vineyards) is divided into three separate vineyards: Vigneto del Biss, Vigneto del Longon and Vigneto Era Grande, their specificity enabling the cultivation of grapes with different tastes and characteristics. These blend beautifully to give Tenuta Amadio wines the aromas and flavours that make them unique products of their kind.

We use sustainable agriculture in our vineyards.

Harvesting is carried out the old-fashioned way, by hand into small crates, then the grapes are immediately taken to the winery using a small steel truck and worked while still fresh.

Inside the winery, the grapes are turned into wine using the most modern techniques at a constantly controlled temperature. Of all the Tenuta Amadio wines, our top product is Asolo DOCG Prosecco Superiore, the result of a strictly controlled production chain featuring cutting-edge technology and entirely manual processing of the grapes.

Just 10 minutes from Siena, Vallepiciola winery lies in the rolling hills of Chianti Classico. The 105-hectares estate vineyards have been planted selecting the best area for each grape variety, such as Sangiovese, Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon, Pinot Nero, Merlot and Chardonnay. Our large and modern cellar is the perfect match between respect for traditions, nature, history and experimentation, creativity and technology. Vallepiciola offers a remarkable insight into Pievasciata's vineyard blocks through its unique combination of soil type, clone, rootstock, altitude, and exposure, resulting in wines of uncommon charm and complexity.
