BENVENUTI!

Dear visitors,

I would like to welcome you to the joint booth of the Italian Trade Agency at Ambiente 2026, the leading international consumer goods trade fair.

This year 20 Italian companies will exhibit in Halls 3.1 and 9.0. The spectrum ranges from established, internationally successful traditional companies to up-and-coming newcomers. With their innovations in the sectors of interior design and modern kitchen & baking, they will provide visitors with information about their products, emphasizing the creative flair of the Land of fashion and design.

According to data released by Confcommercio, the Italian market for tableware, kitchenware and home décor was worth €7.62 billion in 2023, continuing the positive trend of recent years, driven by the kitchen sector. In detail, the kitchen and tableware segments accounted for €6.67 billion, while home accessories represented nearly €1 billion. The furniture market also remains strong, benefiting from Italy's position as Europe's second-largest producer, with exports reaching €19.4 billion in 2024.

Ambiente 2025 hosted over 3,750 exhibitors from 170 countries, including 318 from Italy, and attracted an international audience, with 71% of visitors coming from abroad.

In renewing my wishes for a successful participation at Ambiente 2026 and fruitful new business prospects, our Berlin Office remains at your disposal for any information and assistance you may require.

Yours sincerely,

Ferdinando Fiore
Director ITA Berlin Office

The Italian Trade Agency – ITA is the Governmental Agency which supports the business development of Italian companies abroad and promotes the attraction of foreign investment in Italy.

With a motivated and modern organization and a widespread network of 87 Offices in 74 foreign countries, ITA provides information, assistance, consulting, promotion and training to Italian small and medium-sized enterprises. Using the most modern multi-channel promotion and communication tools, it acts to assert the excellence of Made in Italy in the world.

Under the supervision of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation (MAECI), the Italian Trade Agency works together with business organizations and other public and private entities.

To support the Italian companies, the Italian Trade Agency organizes a wide range of initiatives worldwide, such as the participation in trade fairs, bilateral workshops and missions of buyers and journalists to the main sectorial events in Italy.

There is an Italy made of skilled hands, small workshops, bold ideas, and businesses that grow step by step. It is the Italy of small enterprises, local excellence, and things made with care.

From this world comes Confartigianato Imprese – an organization that, for decades, has supported artisans and entrepreneurs through growth, innovation, and strong representation. With over 700,000 member businesses, Confartigianato is the largest network in Italy dedicated to the craft and small enterprise sector.

It represents a business fabric that accounts for 98.2% of all Italian companies and employs nearly 10 million people. Every day, Confartigianato ensures that the voice of SMEs is heard, their rights protected, and their skills recognized.

In a rapidly changing world, Confartigianato remains a steady guide – preserving tradition, embracing innovation, and proudly promoting the quality and style of Made in Italy.

FIAC (Italian Association of Homeware, Tableware, and Related Articles Manufacturers), established in 1949 within ANIMA CONFINDUSTRIA, remains a key reference point for the protection and promotion of the industry it represents. FIAC is the official organization representing Italian manufacturers of metal household products—home to some of the most renowned and prestigious companies in the “Made in Italy” sector, known for their quality and excellence. The association encompasses producers of a wide range of products, including flatware, cutlery, cookware, and metal pottery. FIAC is an active member of FEC (Federation of European Cutlery, Flatware, Holloware, and Cookware Industries), which represents a broad spectrum of European companies and advocates for the common technological and scientific interests of the industry. Additionally, FIAC is involved in standardization efforts through national (UNI) and international bodies (CEN, ISO, FEC).

In 2024, the sector recorded a production value of €810 million, with 67,8% of this total coming from exports.

Designers and master artisans, we are one big family. Since 1977, Lineasette has been creating artworks with an essential, minimalist, and modern design. We strip away the superfluous from every shape and interpret the material with soft, sinuous lines, seeking out its most intimate essence. In our workshop in Marostica, the heart of the Venetian Ceramics Land, we combine creativity and craftsmanship to create collections of home décor items such as sculptures, vases, umbrella stands, and tailor-made projects. Each piece is designed and made entirely in Italy, using a noble ceramic material developed by us: porcelain stoneware. Fired at 1200°C, it is resistant and waterproof, and its matte, monochromatic surface gives Lineasette creations timeless elegance, identity, and durability.

Riccardo Marzi was the founder of the company: in 1979 he first experimented this craft, thinking about "preserving" elements of Nature embedded in everyday objects. Today his children Elena and Andrea, are running the company, making tableware products, centerpieces and other unique objects by using this particular technique: they embed flower arrangements and other natural elements, inside a clear resin.

Our objects look like paintings: small glimpses of Nature inspired by Nature. It is no coincidence that our company is located in the middle of the Tuscan hills, from which we draw a lot of inspiration. For more than 15 years, two of our products have been exhibited at the MoMA in New York.

The name "Terre di Scirocco" embodies the soul of our company and our deep connection to the land and the wind that inspire us every day. We are artisans of artistic ceramics, and our workshop is based in Naples, the vibrant heart of the Mediterranean. Here, between sea and volcano, history and passion, nature itself collaborates with our hands. The clay we shape comes from an ancient land, rich in tradition and creativity. But it is the Scirocco wind – warm, humid, and full of stories – that completes the cycle of our work, slowly drying each piece and leaving in it the breath of the South. "Terre di Scirocco" is much more than a name: it is an idea, an emotional geography, a declaration of love for our land. Our ceramics carry with them the light of the Mediterranean, the warmth of the wind, and the memory of a place that has always known how to turn raw matter into beauty.

Vitesy is an Italian company dedicated to improving people's lives and well-being through the development of innovative and sustainable products, promoting a healthy environment and a sustainable lifestyle.

At Ambiente, Vitesy's spotlight is on the Shelfy product family, designed to transform the way food is preserved. Available in two versions: Shelfy Upgraded, the smart solution, and Shelfy Lite, the click-and-play version. Shelfy extends the freshness of food in the refrigerator by up to 12 days, reducing bacterial load and breaking down the molecules responsible for the ripening of fruits and vegetables.

Powered by photocatalytic technology, Shelfy eliminates pollutants at the molecular level and its filter is fully washable under running water, requiring no replacement.

Building on the success of Shelfy, Vitesy is expanding its range with new solutions for food preservation both inside and outside the fridge, reflecting the evolution of the line and offering a broader catalog to meet diverse everyday needs.
