INTRODUCTION

This Open Call for Bids issued by the Italian Trade Agency, New York Office (hereinafter referred to as the “ITA”) summarizes here the background, scope, objectives, process, and timeline for the requested service aimed to promote and enhance the perception of the Italian cuisine throughout the US by conducting a series of promotional activities that will educate the restaurant chefs on the authentic Italian cuisine.

The focus will be geared towards emphasizing authentic Italian cooking and ingredients as a way to increase the reputation and customer appreciation of Italian restaurants in the US.

1. SCOPE OF WORK

The ITA is looking for a group/association/organization to scout a minimum of 20 authentic Italian restaurants across the US whose head chef will participate in a two-day, four-course series of virtual masterclasses conducted by a renowned Italian chef hired by FIPE (Federazione Italiana dei Pubblici Esercizi aka Italian Federation of Public Businesses). Each of the four one-hour masterclasses will be hosted by the chef in Italy and broadcasted live to the selected participating restaurants. Exact dates and times will be determined at a later date.

The restaurants will then prepare signature dishes created by the Italian chef and in the manner indicated by the chef, and feature them on their menu during the following promotional week of October 18-25, 2021.

The goal of this initiative is to promote the use of authentic ingredients, methods of preparation / cooking times and wine pairings through a characteristic menu that shows innovative, modern takes on traditional Italian recipes that the participants can draw inspiration from and adapt, eventually, into their own menus.

For the realization of the aforementioned activity, the New York Office will make use of an external supplier who will have to guarantee the management of the project in all its aspects, including the management of the A / V equipment in each restaurant, communication on the social platforms of the restaurants involved in the promotion as well as the distribution at restaurants of any promotional material.

CONTENT OF THE REQUESTED SERVICES:

The service object of the RFP consists in the following:

1. Coordinate, organize and ensure the participation of at least 20 restaurants/chefs throughout the United States in the promotion, under the supervision of ITA.
2. Coordinate with the Italian Chef and ensure he/she provides dedicated menus for each masterclass along with clear instructions/steps for participants to follow.
3. Provide all materials needed in order to ensure that all products and ingredients used are authentic Italian. No substitutions will be accepted.
4. Ensure no product brands are displayed or mentioned in any of the masterclasses, but that authentic Italian products and ingredients are promoted as a category.

5. Ensure that all chefs are available and have the proper equipment/technology to be able to participate in the virtual masterclasses.
6. Ensure that all restaurants involved in the promotion feature the signature dishes created by the Italian Chef in their menus during the promotional week.
7. Ensure that the restaurants insert a short presentation of the Italian chef in their dedicated menu. The ITA will provide the text to the head of the organization awarded the bid.

The AO will then review the documentation contained in envelope "A - Documentation"; only those bidders who are in compliance with the bidding rules contained herein will continue to the next phase. The AO will put the results on record and at the end of the public session, the minutes will be taken.

Ascertainment of failure to show compliance with the requirements will disqualify companies from bidding

The AO, in an open ONLINE session, will then review and evaluate the contents of envelopes “B - Financial Bid”, putting the results on record.

The bidding company with the lowest overall bid and with a discount that does not exceed 4/5th of the auction base will be declared the winning company.

Pursuant to the provisions of the ITA's bylaws and internal organizational rules, the Commissioner of ITA office in New York will formally choose the final winner.

In case of equal financial offers among two or more bidders, during the public session the ITA's officer in charge of the bid procedure will be requesting the representatives of the bidding companies attending the session whether they would like to submit a revised downward offer.

In that case the bid will be awarded to the company that will offer the lowest price. If none of the bidding companies are represented during the public session, ITA will follow the procedure outlined in art. 77 of R.D. 827/1924, including, if necessary, a formal drawing of lots, during a new public session, in order to select the awarded bidding company among those who presented the lowest but equal best offers.

ITA will email the winning Agency, asking them to provide:

- the documentation proving compliance with the requirements established to participate in the bid, if any;
- the documentation that is necessary to enter into the contract.
