Dear trade fair visitors,

We are pleased to welcome you to live a truly Italian experience at ANUGA 2025.

This year the Italian Trade Agency has organized a Pavilion including 186 exhibitors, which will present a highly diverse and innovative selection of products. These range from exquisite olive oils and aceto balsamico, fresh and dried pasta products, coffee, confectionery specialties and truffles to superlative ham and sausages, cheese and tomato sauces, as well as regional delicacies and organic products.

Many Italian products displayed in our Pavilion already bear the European seal denoting the protected place of origin (PDO and PGI).

The Italian Trade Agency Team will be at your disposal (Hall 11.2, Fine Food, B060) for information and assistance on the Italian participation at the trade fair.

Yours Sincerely,
Ferdinando Fiore
Director

The Italian food industry

The Italian food industry is one of the most important sectors in the country in terms of sales, second only to the metal and mechanical engineering industries.

One of the strengths of "Made in Italy" in the food sector lies in the many EU-certified DOP and IGP products - PDO (Protected Designation of Origin) and PGI (Protected Geographical Indication). As of now, 328 agri-food products and 530 wines from Italy have been awarded these European quality labels. Certified PDO and PGI products remain among the most dynamic segments, reaching a total value of 20,2 billion euros in 2023, of which 11.6 billion euros come from exports, representing an increase of 8.3% compared to the previous year.

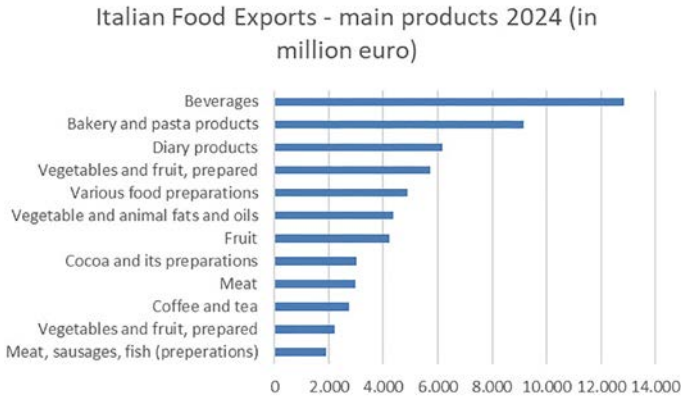

The export of Italian foodstuff and agricultural products

In 2024, Italy exported 66,7 billion euros worth of agricultural products and foodstuffs (+8,7 % year-on-year). The main importing countries were Germany (10.5 billion euros), the United States (7.8 billion euros), France (7.5 billion euros), and the United Kingdom (4.9 billion euros).

THE MOST IMPORTANT SALES MARKETS OF ITALIAN FOOD PRODUCTS (2024)

The main Italian export products in 2024 included: wine (+5,7 % compared to 2023), pasta and bakery products (+9,4%), dairy products (+9,2%), and prepared vegetables and fruit (+5,8%).

ITALIAN FOOD EXPORTS - MAIN PRODUCTS 2024 (IN MILLION EURO)

Italian food exports continued to develop positively in the first months of 2025 (Jan-June), with an increase of 6,7% year-on-year. The following product groups have performed particularly well so far in 2025: cocoa and its preparations (+29,3%), coffee and tea (+22,6%), fruit (+22,4%), Dairy products (+16,2%), meat (+12,4%) and various food preparations (+7,7%)

As per export destinations, the following countries stand out with rising figures: Spain (+16,8%), Poland (+18,2%), Canada (+10,6%) and Netherlands (+9,3%). Exports to Germany rose by 6.7% in the first half of 2025, in line with total exports, while exports to the USA recorded a below-average growth rate of 5.7% during this period.

Looking at the most important product groups in Italy's exports to Germany, beverages (especially wine and spirits) clearly lead the way with a value of 1.79 billion euros. They are followed by pasta and bakery products with 1.35 billion euros, followed by fruit with 1.29 billion euros. Noteworthy is the sharp increase in 2024 for the categories of oils and fats, which climbed to 573 million euros (+48% compared to the previous year), and cocoa products, which rose to 387 million euros (+47%).

Piedmont has been the cradle of egg pasta, pulled by hand by a wise grandmother to create the typical "tagliolino". Passing also through this past, the pasta of the ANTICO PASTIFICIO TEALDI is prepared precisely from a dough which is then folded, cut and dried at low temperatures for about 24 hours in order to maintain the flavors of each ingredient. Thanks to the addition of delicious ingredients such as truffle, boletus mushroom, pesto and many others, the result is a delicious artisanal pasta.
