A long tradition of prestigious furniture

01

Beauty is what we aspire to

We have been producing timeless furnishings for a long time now. For almost fifty-five years, our name has been associated with classic furniture, making Bianchini one of the most prestigious Italian brands on the market, both at home and abroad.

02

Our Family

We've come a long way since 1967, when the three brothers – Remo, Renzo and Bruno – first established the company that bears their name.

They had learned the secrets of cabinet making and woodworking from the master craftsmen of Verona, in the workshops in Cerea and the neighbouring villages. After years of practice, they joined forces and opened the carpentry workshop.

Their aim from day one was to create a family-run business, and they've never lost sight of this aspiration since.

The company has grown to an impressive extent, yet it still embodies the values of its origins, today through the second generation at the helm, continuing to pursue the hallmark Bianchini features of tradition, prestige, attention to detail and Italian design.

BIANCHINI®

03

Made in Italy

Bianchini's prestigious furniture is the child of a long tradition of the best Made in Italy craftsmanship.

We learned the secrets of cabinet-making and woodworking from the master craftsmen of Verona, in the workshops of Cerea and the nearby towns.

Thanks to our experience, we are able to bring the grandeur of the past, the Neoclassical, the Baroque, the Empire style, into home.

5.2

Mission

Choosing Bianchini means choosing all the bespoke elegance and tradition of an Italian family business that has now reached the third generation. Love for our local area, the care for every detail, and continual experimentation: these are the foundations our furniture is built upon. This is why we can craft such prestigious furnishings, both classic and contemporary, and to give them such a unique touch.

Vision

We seek to become an international benchmark for both classic and contemporary furniture.

We want to establish the uniqueness of our brand, already acknowledged as one of the leading marks in the production of high-end furnishings.

5.3

Craftmanship

The entire production process takes place in our own factory, demonstrating the solid value of the company and its close links with the local area. Furnishings are designed, constructed and finished in-house, thus guaranteeing complete control over every stage of the production chain and the original style we are so proud of.

We are proud of the people who work with us, and we place our complete trust in them to make our classical furnishings unique.

Our finest craftsmen, cabinet-makers, designers and technicians work to produce top-of-the-range furnishings, taking advantage of tradition combined with cutting-edge technologies.
