Francesco Giarletta

Master Rosmundo Giarletta

Founder and creator of the figurative Honeycomb Technique

At Rosmundo all our creations are hand made in Italy by our family and we do not compromise on our quality.

Each jewel is meticulously crafted with the finest materials, transforming every piece into a work of art.

The diamonds and gemstones we use are always selected to match the beauty of our craftsmanship.

“It takes dedication and eye for beauty to seek out the finest precious stones”

Rosmundo Giarletta

Mission and vision

At Rosmundo, we craft our art with a deep understanding of modern life. Inspired by our clients' passion, each jewel holds a contemporary relevance that signifies more than quality and craftsmanship, it embodies the essence of 'Made in Italy' excellence.

We're committed to responsible and ethical material sourcing in our quest for the best

SOLI COLLECTION

SOLI COLLECTION

Rosmundo's most iconic collection is a tribute to the timeless brilliance of the sun, artistically crafted with our figurative honeycomb technique a hallmark of our craftsmanship. Like the sun that graces the Amalfi Coast and Capri, this collection embodies the eternal essence of warmth and elegance. Each piece, meticulously created, captures the radiant spirit of the Italian sun

The figurative honeycomb represents our most vital element of the Amalfi Coast: the Sun

CORNO COLLECTION

CORNO COLLECTION

The most South Italian amulet of good luck represented by Rosmundo for many years. The light of the sun rays on the top of the horn reflects the bad luck away for all 12 months of year represented with 12 diamonds.

The Italian corno is a worldwide amulet of good luck. It is also an iconic symbol which expresses passion and love for our traditions.

RICAMI COLLECTION

The Ricami Collection draws inspiration from the ancient lace technique and our Honeycomb art, fusing two timeless crafts to birth a fresh, modern, and edgy design. Each piece embodies this innovative fusion, empowering you with a sense of tradition reinvented for the future.

Ricami means embroidery, inspired to Rosamundo's mother who was an Italian embroiderer

A close-up, high-angle photograph of a woman's face and upper body. She has dark hair pulled back, a warm complexion, and is smiling broadly, showing her teeth. She is wearing a blue headband and a red garment. Two pieces of jewelry from the Sibilla Collection are visible: a blue and gold circular earring in her left ear and a matching blue and gold circular ring on her left hand's ring finger. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green.

COLLECTION

SIBILLA COLLECTION

Sibilla was an oracol living in a mysterious temple of Ancient Naples, she used to be a vital for the protection and the future fortune of the Emperors and Nobles during the Roman Empire. The collection crafted in diamond, honeycomb and natural stones, recalls the evil eye to honour the incredible power of Sibilla the oracol loved even by Apollo, the god of the Sun.

The collection is an ancient amulet of fortune and protection, the colors are our mediterranean Heritage and the honeycomb is the ode of Love between Apollo, the god of Sun and Sibilla.

RAFFAELLA COLLECTION

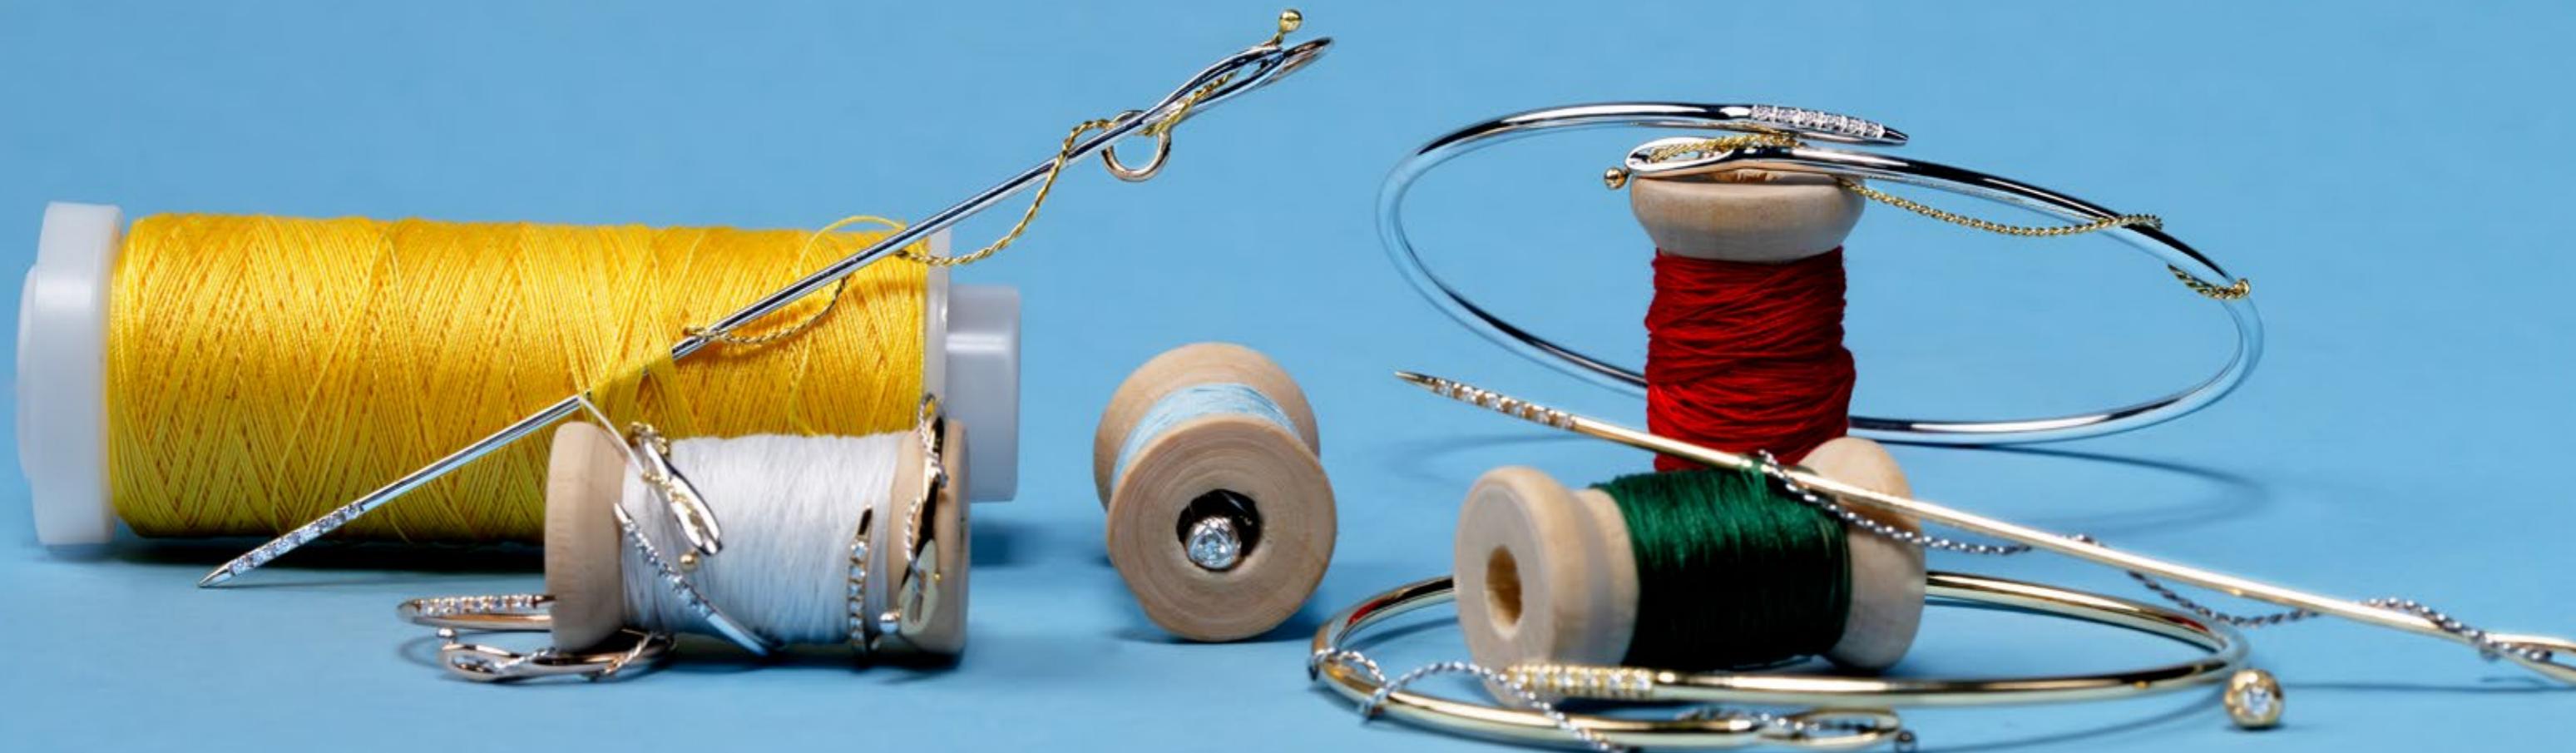

RAFFAELLA COLLECTION

The Raffaella Collection, named after Rosmundo's mother, pays homage to her skillful tailoring with needles and thread. Although her passion for jewelry remained a distant dream, Rosmundo became a goldsmith to fulfill her unspoken wish. This collection reimagines needles and thread in a unique and modern style, encouraging everyone to adorn their loved ones with the same love that Raffaella had for Rosmundo.

*Raffaella is the name of Rosmundo's mother.
