

Gusti d'Italia s.r.l.

Torino - Piemonte - Italy

Italian fine food and wine

Mission

Gusti d'Italia was founded in 2008 from the idea of different producers from Piemonte (Italy).

One experienced Italian wine grower in Mango (Cuneo), one pasta workshop (Alba), one coffee roaster (Torino), one sauce and appetizer producer (Torino), one maitre chocolatier (Torino) had set up this company to promote and to export our products in more than 23 countries with about 1 mil euro turnover.

- Piemonte wines
- Handmade pasta
- Sauce and appetizer
- Coffee
- Chocolate and candy

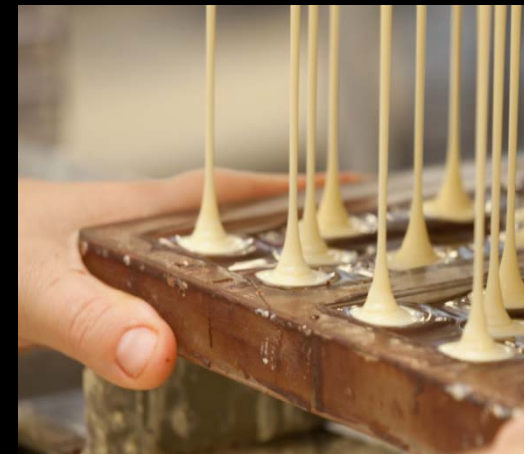

The production

Gusti d'Italia is located in Piedmont, one of the most Italian representative regions about wines and high quality food production. Our products point out Italian high quality tradition in the wine and food field. We strongly believe in quality and authenticity for our products.

We handle every aspect of production, from the choice of the best ingredients to the meticulous respect in the preparation.

Customized product

We offer the possibility to produce a product on demand, with your recipe or with your private label. Thanks to our experience, we follow throughout the implementation of your recipe or your private label with timeliness and reliability, offering the possibility to choose among a wide variety of ingredients, products and packaging types, to better meet the demands and market trends.

Delivery

We offer a wide range of delivery services related to food and beverage industry. We have the ability to offer different options customised to your needs, especially for the goods sensitive to temperature changes: land transport (by truck and rail), sea and air delivery – groupage and complete, door-to-door service; shipments through refrigerated containers (by land, sea and air) and temperature-controlled, flexi-tank, insulated carton-box in polystyrene, green ice.

The partners of our delivery are the best in Europe:

