CARRY-OVER 2026 COLLECTION CULT II

CULT II

In this second edition new shapes come to life, more voluminous and bold. The curve is both smooth and sharp, eventually becoming an edge, a corner, and a concavity.

ONO

Ono Link – a new Cult design.

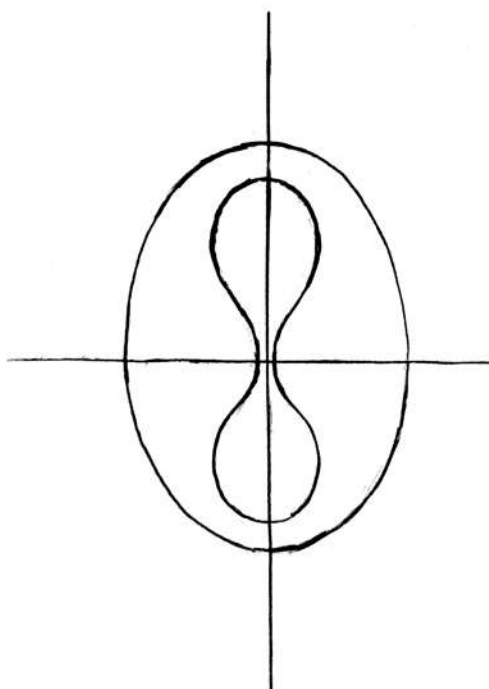

- The larger links are made of 6082 INOX aluminum: this material allows voluminous dimensions without becoming heavy, also corrosion resistant.
- To achieve the yellow color, the aluminum go under a process called “carburizing”: a chemical reaction that makes the aluminum electrically conductive. This allows them to be plated with 24-karat gold.
- It comes in three sizes: Baby (18 mm), Large (42 mm), and Mega (55 mm).

SLAMATE

- Sections where the metal is etched with concave cuts running lengthwise across the surface. Clean cuts and sharp edges have always been a distinctive symbol of the brand; today, they have been reimagined and incorporated into this new Cult link as well.

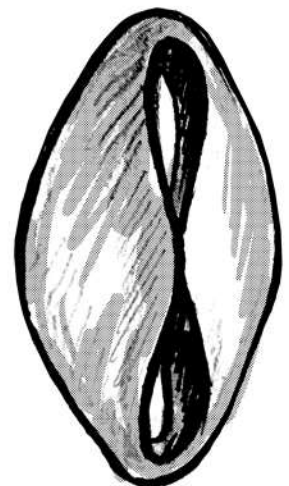

- Amalfi S/S 2021 collection featured a mariner style link with an open-hole pattern. ONO's designs have more complex volumes that take up space through curves and lines.

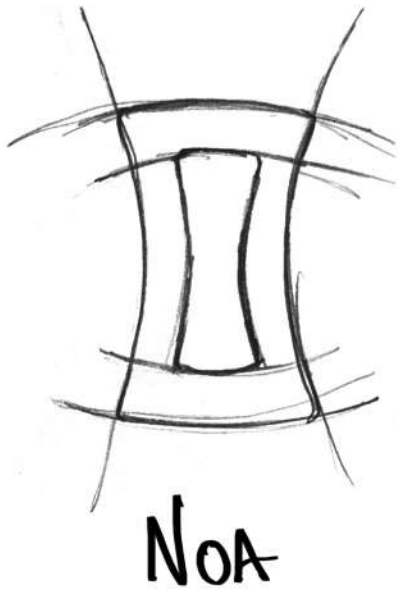

Amalfi

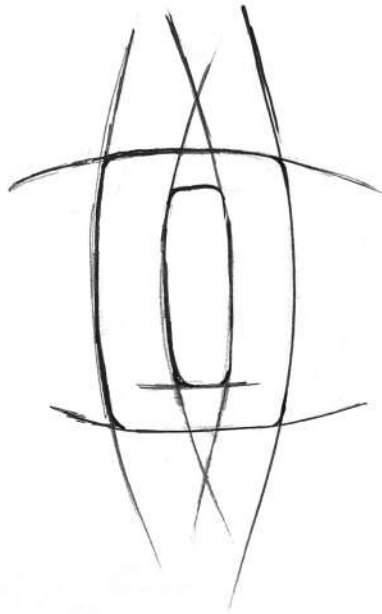

ONO

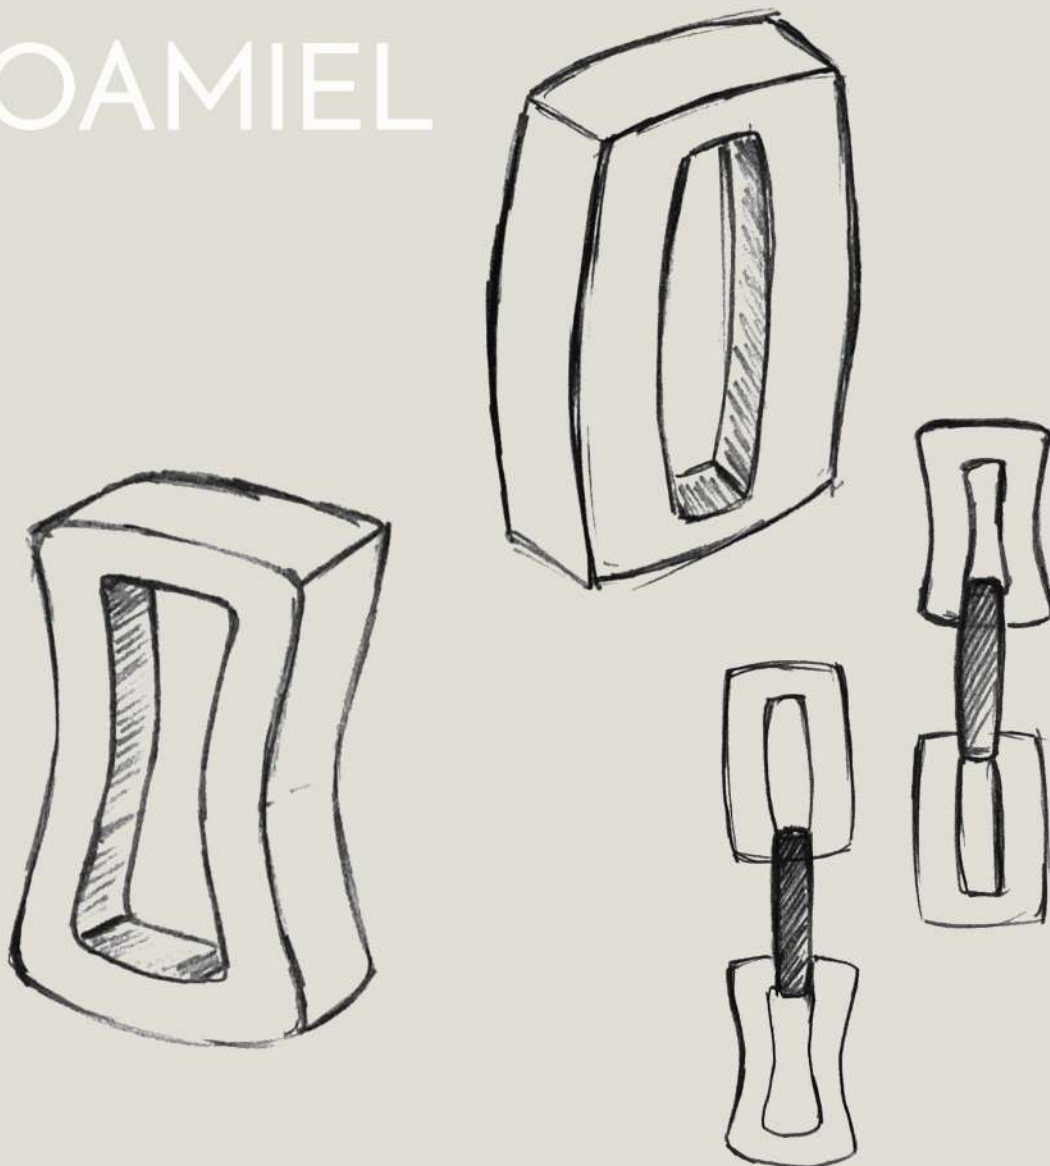

Miel

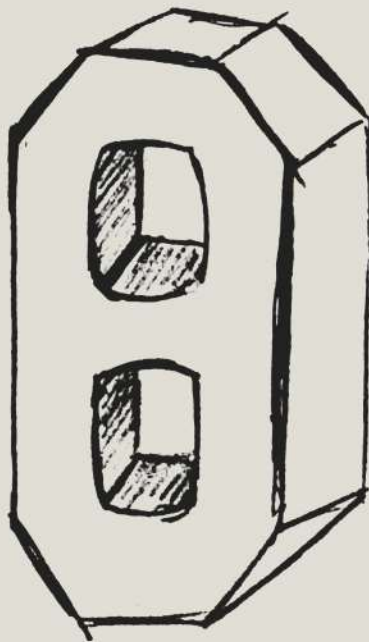

New square shaped links, in the composition NoaMiel.

- Soft, curved lines on geometric block shapes. The Noa link features a square shaped opening that narrows toward the center. The Miel link, on the other hand, is its inverse, with a convex curve and a wider center.
- An overall feminine, harmonious, and classic composition.

NOAMIEL

ELIANNE

Eli

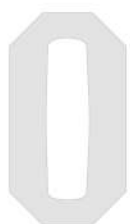

Anne

Square shaped link in the composition EliAnne.

- Clean-cut edges that are slightly rounded at the corners, on geometric, brick like shapes. The Eli link features two elongated square-shaped holes, which serve as a reinterpretation of the classic mariner link in the Rebecca style. The other link, the Anne, has the same silhouette as the Eli, but with a single elongated square shaped hole.

- A bold, genderless and very strong composition.

B I C O L O R

The new Cult chain designs are defined by another distinctive detail: the Bi-Color effect.

With an undefined and irregular rhythm, the links follow one another in an alternating pattern of white and yellow electroplating, never predictable and always unexpected, in 24-karat gold. The imperfection, the detail that breaks the rule, is one of the hallmarks of the new Rebecca design, reflected here in the electroplated finishes.

The color variations in this Cult selection were designed one by one as unique pieces, almost never following the rules of white and yellow as inverted compositions.

FOULARD

The jewelry accessory: a fine silk muslin foulard, handcrafted and hand-finished.

Available in six colors, combined with plated finish:

- White gold pairs well with mocha brown, mauve pink, and powder blue
- Yellow gold pairs well with terracotta red, champagne yellow, and olive green

In the center of each scarf is the "RR" logo, hand-embroidered with tone on tone thread.

Countless ways to wear Rebecca foulards with jewelry accents – as a bow tie, with a bow-shaped scarf clip, tied around the head à la Grace Kelly, or as a necklace by rolling the fabric around itself and wearing the charm as a pendant.
