ALLIES FOR INTESTINAL WELLBEING

Enteroflora®

The intestinal bacterial flora is a complex ecosystem with hundreds of bacterial species that play a key role in supporting the proper functioning of the body.
Its main functions:

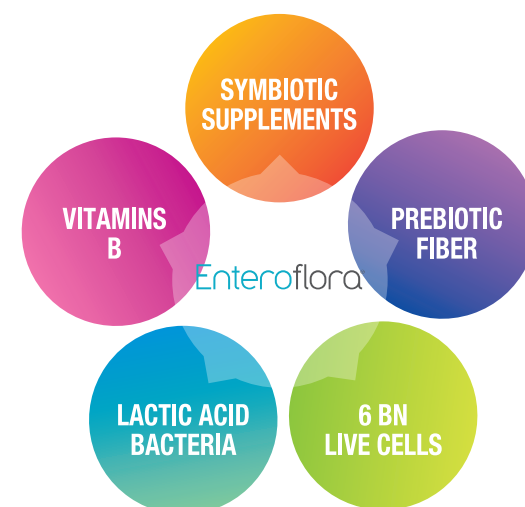

- The intense metabolic activity due to the action of bacterial enzymes on gut substrates;
- The food waste fermentation;
- The energy recovery through short-chain fatty acids production;
- The protection against colonization or invasion by pathogenic bacteria;
- The development, stimulation and modulation of the immune system.

20 Capsules

Provide in daily dose
6 billion live lactic acid bacteria
at the expiry date

Enteroflora Symbio® is not a common “lactic ferment” formulated to compensate the intestinal mucosa damage caused by antibiotic therapy, it is a real intestinal flora rebalancing. It aims to restore an optimal physiological balance to the bacterial ecosystem in children and adults.

THE PROPOLIS

- 1 HIGH QUALITY OF RAW PROPOLIS
An excellent product must necessarily start from high-quality raw materials.
- 2 ACCURATE ANALYSIS
Lenigola products are free from: pesticides, antibiotics, aflatoxins, heavy metals.
- 3 THE TECHNOLOGY
Multi Dynamic Extraction (M.E.D)

The innovative Multi Extraction technology Dynamic (M.E.D.) allows extraction integral of the active ingredients from resinous matrices such as Propolis, extremely complex to work, obtaining purifications from inert resins, otherwise impossible with normal static technologies.

Lenigola products contain a standardized propolis extract titrated for hplc-es-ms, obtained with patented M.E.D. Dynamic Multi Extraction: guarantees the high content of polyphenols and flavonoids characteristic of propolis.

A phase for the glycosylation of polyphenols was also included in the processing, with the aim of improving their solubility in water and at the same time also their biological activity.

4 THE FLAVONOIDS CONCENTRATION
High content of Galangina

The effectiveness of the products is related to concentration of active ingredients (flavonoids) present inside.

A complete range of propolis-based products, with antibacterial, anti-inflammatory and antiviral properties

RECOMMENDED TO: those looking for an effective solution against sore throat to use from the first symptoms, whenever needed, without having to worry about side effects. Ideal for the whole family.

Thanks to its high concentration of active ingredients (flavonoids) in its special formula, after only five minutes of contact, Lenigola has proven effectiveness against the main viruses and bacteria responsible for sore throat, redness and burning. In fact, the propolis of Lenigola products is dewaxed and purified with an innovative technological method, which makes it richer in flavonoids that have been most studied for their effectiveness. A complete range of products made up of sprays, pearls and tablets, all gluten-free, without preservatives and artificial colors.
