ABOUT

Confabi S.r.l. is a family-run business founded in 1971 in San Rocco al Porto, a small Italian town closed to the city of Piacenza.

Originally established as a children's clothing manufacturer, Confabi has gradually expanded its production to the women's ready-to-wear sector, which quickly became the main company's core business.

MAESTA

Maesta is an idea, a product and a brand that takes its shape in 2008 and whose philosophy has always been the pure “Made in Italy”.

The result is a lively collection, characterized by an extremely feminine and sophisticated identity. The prints and the original mix of exclusive textures, the desire to experience and use unusual colors and shapes are its strength.

Maesta’s client is a conscious and evolved woman, in balance between the will to show her style that emphasizes her strong personality, and the wish not to show off too much; she has a busy life and she’s always looking for an elegant way to express her uniqueness and femininity.

Maesta is a constant work of merging and rearranging the trends and the principles of fashion with the aim of creating a product that catches everyone's attention, disconnected from all the conventions and conceived for a woman who is constantly moving towards a precise direction keeping up with her times.
