

"Our mission is to reach Interior Designers to significantly increase the value of their Villa projects all over the world."

Brands

We guarantee you a wide selection of italian brands from which to choose, according to your tastes, spaces and needs, with shipping worldwide.

Design

With more than 50 years of experience, we support architects and interior designers in the choice of our unique products to furnish villas all over the world.

One our designer will take care of your project along the whole process. He will be your referent person for the entire project, and you can always rely on the whole team of Lombardo Italian Villa Design.

Proposal

We will create a project proposal in which furniture, finishings and materials will be presented. You can follow the final result of the project step by step through our renders and our simulated experience.

Assembling

With your final approval, we will proceed to order and ship the furniture.

When everything is ready, one of our teams will come to assemble the items you have selected.
