

FAMILY WINERY BERTA 1842

On 22 June 2014, the “Vineyard Landscape of Piedmont: Langhe-Roero and Monferrato” was added to the UNESCO's World Heritage list, making it the 50th UNESCO site in Italy and the first Italian Vineyard landscape

Since 2014 this area - Nizza Monferrato has been promoted to DOCG status and born NIZZA DOCG.

The zone of production is centered on the town of Nizza Monferrato, from which the wine derives its name.

Nizza Monferrato is located in the Upper Monferrat, in the south of the Province of Asti, 30 km from the town of Asti. The comune is rich in vineyards, and is traversed by the river Belbo. Here produce wines DOC and DOCG, like Barbera, Dolcetto, Nebbiolo, Moscato, Brachetto, Cortese, Freisa e Grignolino.

The main grape is Barbera, this wine here have particulary characteristic and higher quality – espetialy thanks of terruarche da ai vini le particolari qualità organolettiche.

Cellar has been founded for 177 years, since 1842. Actually it is run by Paolo Berta and who is helping his wife Ksenia

The Berta winery, located on the border of two famous grape-growing regions: the Monferrato and Langhe, has been a family-run winemaker for seven-generations.

From the vineyards, located in viticultural areas, the beautiful surrounding landscape may also be enjoyed, stretching across to the hill of San Michele in the form of a natural amphitheater continuously exposed to the sun.

Vineyards are owned (10Ha) and are located in the vicinity of the cellar (100m);

Thanks to the diverse characteristics of the soil, various varieties of grape can be grown: the red Barbera, Dolcetto, Nebbiolo, Brachetto and white Cortese and Moscato.

For aging we use steel tanks, as well as French barriques, but some wines are aged in large barrels that have a long history.

During work with red wines we use a very delicate filtration, all red wines could be called Vegan wines.

Since the Nizza DOCG category was recognized, the wines of the winery often participate in competitions and various tastings.

We offer you an advantageous collaboration, which will allow you to expand your offer of a unique collection of Nizza Monferrato wines
