Advanced industrial technology, Italian craftsmanship and care for details

We design, create and test every product. Our secret is a combination of advanced industrial technology and human skills. We give great care in each step of manufacturing so as to make our products perfect in each detail and comfortable to wear.

When expertise ennobles the raw material

Our team researches
and selects the finest quality raw materials for every project. Our aim being the creation of perfect and peculiar products.

Our location

We are based in Cadore region
at the foothills
of Dolomites Mountains.

Our strategy
is selling only to opticians
and not on e-commerce

Step by step always at your side.

We strongly believe in the professional skills of opticians and in the personal human relationships, therefore we have chosen sales to retailers as our only commercial channel.

Opticians are the best patient's advisors.
