ROTATIONAL MOULDING TECHNOLOGY

Rotational moulding is a plastic manufacturing process that produces stress-free parts as there is little or no force or pressure involved.

Our products are made of polyethylene (PE) which, thanks to its properties, is far superior to other materials such as steel or fiberglass that can rust, corrode or deteriorate.

Products obtained by rotational moulding technology have crucial features compared to other manufacturing processes:

- Monobloc without welds or joints
- Longer lifespan (+10 years)
- Designed for optimum performance
- Higher resistance and lighter weight
- Impervious to weather conditions and UV resistant
- Resistance to deterioration from exposure to chemicals
- 100% recyclable
