COMPREHENSIVE RANGE OF FRUITS AND VEGETABLES PLUS REGIONAL SPECIALITIES

Across Italy, we work with growers who are deeply rooted in their landscapes and practices, cultivating regional and speciality produce that reflects the character of their land - from the fragrant DOP basil of Savona, harvested by Paolo, to Sebastiano's naturally salty Marinda Winter Tomatoes, grown in Pachino's cold, sandy soils.

In Scordia, we've partnered with Carmelo for over a decade - one of the many outstanding Italian growers we work with. His commitment to his citrus groves is nothing short of extraordinary. Nestled high above sea level, his orchards benefit from a unique microclimate where warm days and cold nights bring out complex sugars and vivid colour in the fruit.

Over in Veneto, we source Radicchio Castelfranco from Luca, Tema Artichokes from Romualdo in South Sardinia, Fresh Peas and Broad Beans from Domenico in Campania, plus a variety of Wild and Foraged produce, including Truffle and Wild Mushrooms, gathered from Tuscany, Emilia Romagna and Piedmont.
