OUR COOPERATIVE

CONAPI (Italian National Beekeepers Cooperative) is located in Monterenzio, in the province of Bologna, in the North of Italy.

It represents many producers beekeepers, all over Italy, men and women, united by their passion for bees, for their products and for nature.

About 3,000 tonnes of honey is being produced, processed and sold by CONAPI every year.

A complete “honey supply chain” model, from the choice of territories, through apiary production, to the packaging and marketing of the finished product.

Almost 50% of our hives are organic.

THE HONEY WORLD

There is not just one honey, but as many honeys as there are flowers in the different Italian territories. The MIELIZIA and MIELIZIA BIO lines, in fact, include various types of honeys, such as acacia, wildflower, linden, forest, sulla, orange, chestnut, clementine and other varieties that we can offer you thanks to the diversity of the most suitable blooms and territories that our beekeepers carefully select.

MIELIZIA offers a complete range of Italian honeys and hive products, such as pollen and royal jelly. Honey is a versatile product and the different sizes in our range express its infinite possibilities of use and occasions for different needs: the classic glass jar of different capacities, the practical squeezers to facilitate dosing, the convenient single-use sachets and doypacks to take honey with you in all occasions.

ORGANIC FRUIT SPREADS

The MIELIZIA BIO line also includes fruit spreads made with a high percentage of fruit, without pectin, sweetened only with grape sugar and Italian honey from our beekeepers.

The processing technique preserves the natural aromas of the fruit, making them very fragrant, with an intense, unique flavour, exceptional texture and spreadability.

Ideal on bread, adding to spoon desserts or preparing cakes, biscuits and tarts.

ORGANIC BISCUITS AND BARS

Made with a few selected organic ingredients, the MIELIZIA BIO shortbread biscuits and bars are ideal for a healthy and tasty breakfast or snack.

The shortbread biscuits are without syrups and animal fats, and they are also palm oil, eggs and milk free.

The sesame and honey bar is a perfect, healthy and tasty snack. Crunchy and balanced, Mielizia bars are perfect for those who practice sport, for indoor and outdoor activities or everyday life.

Our bars are sources of fibre and produced without aromas and syrups. The practical size of the bar assures you can always take it along.

ORGANIC FOOD SUPPLEMENTS

Bees, these marvellous insects, give us precious products, authentic treasures of the hive, real 100% natural supplements, rich in beneficial properties. The MIELIZIA and MIELIZIA BIO lines offer a range of food supplements, based on: honey, royal jelly, pollen and propolis, all Italian products, harvested by our beekeepers with the utmost respect for the life of the bees.

In sachets, sprays and syrups, they are a supply of energy and relief for throat and cough that comes directly from our hives.
