Castello Bonomi is located in Coccaglio at 275 meters above sea level above the foothills of Monte Orfano (south-east exposure).
The estate is a 35 hectares mosaic of cru.

The incredible terroir is the result of the tectonic uplift that created the Monte Orfano and consist of calcareous conglomerate. The calcareous conglomerate is a chalky, crumbly and rich in minerals kind of soil.

Thanks to Monte Orfano and the southern exposure the vineyards are protected from cold northern winds and enjoy a perfect solar radiation with a rainfall lower than the other areas of Franciacorta.

These three elements make possible to obtain wines with an extraordinary persistence, structure and complexity, in addition to an elegant minerality and a marked saltiness.

The magnificent estate and the characteristic castle from which Castello Bonomi takes its name were built by Andrea Tonelli at the end of the 19th century.

In 1910, the Bonomi family acquires the property from Bortolo Tonelli, the last heir of Andrea: thus, the estate becomes the countryside residence of the Bonomi family.

The property is passed down from generation to generation until it reaches Engineer Marino Bonomi.

Carlo and Roberto Paladin

In 2008, the winery becomes part of Casa Paladin, a family-owned group of wineries, located in Italy's most prestigious denominations.

Luigi Bersini

Carlo and Roberto Paladin continues with consistency what was started by the Bonomi family, thanks also to the contribution of the technical team represented by the chef de cave Luigi Bersini, who has been leading the production since 1985.

Sustainability

INNOVATION, STUDY, AND...

Castello Bonomi follows the principles of organic farming, adopting a responsible approach aimed at minimizing environmental impact through practices that improve and protect the vineyard ecosystem.

Castello Bonomi operates according to the principles of Reasoned Viticulture (4v project), a sustainable agronomic system that aims to ensure production that respects ecosystems and their biodiversity.

Castello Bonomi has been organic certified since 2019.

BIODIVERSITY

Castello Bonomi participates in the BioPass project and ItaCa project.

- ItaCa project, which allows for objective monitoring of the carbon footprint of production and the identification of areas for improvement.
- BioPass project measures the organic matter present in the soil, and in the analyzed soil plot, it has shown exceptional data with organic matter reaching 3.5% in the vineyard, the result of long-term efforts to preserve and ensure soil quality.

40th Anniversary

In 2025, Castello Bonomi celebrated 40 years of vision and identity, told through four defining milestones, one for each decade.

THE FOUR PILLARS OF THE ANNIVERSARY

1 The rediscovered vineyard | CruPerdu

The revival of a historic vineyard hidden in the woods, which became the heart of one of the estate's most iconic wines.

2 Viticulture and Erbammat | tradition and innovation

A journey focused on sustainability, biodiversity and the revival of Erbammat, a native grape variety key to the future of Franciacorta.

3 The classic method and Monte Orfano

A no-compromise winemaking philosophy that highlighted a unique terroir, defined by calcareous soils and a distinctive microclimate.

4 Riserva's Room | time as a value

The ultimate expression of longevity, with Franciacorta wines crafted to challenge time and aged over 120 months on the lees.

Cuvée 1564 Brut Nature

Castello Bonomi is one of the five wineries in Franciacorta, that decided to plant the ancient autochthonous variety of grape Erbammat. This decision is supported by the Franciacorta's consortium, that gave the direction of the study of variety to the professor of University La Statale of Milan Leonardo Valenti.

The first mention of the use of this variety in the local wine scene dates back to 1564 by Agostino Gallo, a renowned Italian agronomist.

Cru Perdu Grande Annata

Why Grande Annata?

This wine is produced only when Chardonnay and Pinot Noir achieve a particularly distinctive acidic structure and sapidity. Only under these conditions can the grapes express greater complexity and a strong potential for aging. After extended aging on the lees, once these characteristics are fully confirmed, a limited number of bottles is selected and allowed to rest further before release.
