DAL 1870

Founded in Ascoli Piceno in 1870, 156 years after its creation, the Meletti distillery is still a family-owned and family-run business which shapes its future with the perspective of a profound history. Meletti still demonstrates passion for distillation and the sheer pleasure of liqueur tasting, representing a charming story of traditions that have been able to develop and progress with the times. The production process, managed by the fifth generation, still bears the mark of the founder, and involves the same meticulous care and attention to detail. The ritual of these daily routines has been followed for more than 150 years, and gives Meletti liqueurs, amaros and elisirs a unique, unmistakable and timeless quality. Meletti is a brand that encapsulates the history of Italy, the beauty of Ascoli Piceno, and the customary habit of people coming together to unwind and socialize over a quality drink.

OPPURE

Oppure is a premium alcohol-free base ingredient, purposefully crafted for professional mixology. It is not a non-alcoholic substitute for an existing spirit, it is something entirely new.

Born in Milan and developed over 18 months combining essential oils, hydrolats and infusions, Oppure has bold, spicy citrus notes of dried lemon peel and bergamot, layered with peppery herbaceous complexity and balanced by a juniper and rosemary base. Oppure delivers what the no/low category has long struggled to offer – real body, a complex mouthfeel, and a persistent bitter finish that holds its own in any cocktail build.

For bartenders, this unlocks genuine versatility. It elevates both alcoholic and non-alcoholic serves equally, giving every guest at the bar – regardless of their alcohol preference – access to a truly premium cocktail experience.

A category unto itself, a liquid with no comparison. Whether you are drinking no-alcohol, low-alcohol, or full proof, Oppure is for you.”

Salicorn is a contemporary Italian London Dry Gin inspired by the Mediterranean coast and crafted around glasswort, a rare coastal botanical that gives the spirit its distinctive saline and mineral character.

Produced in small batches, Salicorn combines classic juniper structure with carefully selected botanicals including coriander, pink pepper, fennel seeds, and cardamom, resulting in a fresh, dry, and elegant profile. The palate is clean and persistent, with subtle herbal and maritime notes that make it highly versatile in mixology.

Designed for modern bartending, Salicorn stands out for its identity, balance, and originality, offering a new interpretation of Mediterranean flavors in the premium gin category.

Awarded at prestigious international competitions (IWSC 2025 – 87/100 and LSC 2026 – 92/100), Salicorn represents a unique expression of Italian craftsmanship and coastal inspiration.

Silvio Carta

It was the early 1950s when Silvio Carta founded the eponymous company in Baratili San Pietro, immediately devoting himself to the most traditional of the local wine productions: Vernaccia di Oristano. An amber gold that embodies nobility and generosity, which immediately charms and conquers the palate.

The skilful vinification, the long resting in a barrel and the careful and loving care by the Maison Silvio Carta have made this incredible wine an authentic glory of Sardinian oenology.

Seventy years have passed since then, but Vernaccia still remains a family matter. But now there is more. After more than half a century, Silvio, together with his son Elio – the latter at the head since 1973 – still devote themselves to the production of the greater Vernaccia di Oristano DOC. However, thanks to a careful look towards innovation and the loving care of very deep passions, today the Silvio Carta company is also synonymous with Mirto ‘riserva’,

London Dry Gin, Vermouth and other typical spirits distributed all over the world as precious examples of an ancient and luxuriant land: today, the world smells of juniper, myrtle and citrus fruits from Sardinia, thanks to the excellence of Silvio Carta.
