Brunello

PROUDLY MADE IN ITALY SINCE 1927

Founded in 1927, Brunello holds a textile heritage made from research, quality and creativity. The company is leader in the production of premium quality Made in Italy linings and fabrics for men's and women's clothing. The wide variety of yarns is a crucial element of Brunello's collections: silk, cupro Bemberg™, viscose, acetate, cotton, wool, elastane, nylon, and innovative fibers. By integrating the entire creative and production chain, Brunello supports customers from yarn selection, design development and personalization to weaving. The offer ranges from classic plains, elegant and versatile, to jacquard designs, piece-dyed or yarn-dyed, up to prints - traditional or ink jet. ISO 9001 certified, the company promotes energy efficiency and reduction of energy waste, as well as the constant measurement of sustainability performance with the use of international certifications. Brunello participates in the major international fairs, telling its vision of Made in Italy, between quality, style and sustainability.
