AMBASSADOR'S MESSAGE

It is with great pleasure that I welcome you to Borsa Vini 2024, an event that stands as a perfect example of the strong and ever-growing ties between Italy and Singapore in the wine sector. Organized by the Italian Trade Agency in collaboration with the Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, Borsa Vini offers a unique platform to showcase the richness and diversity of Italian winemaking traditions while fostering meaningful business connections.

Italy's wines are globally renowned for their exceptional quality and variety, reflecting the diverse terroirs of our 20 regions. Italy continues to be a significant player in the Singaporean market, maintaining its position as the second-largest European supplier of wine, and the fourth-largest in the world. In 2023 alone, Italy exported 2.4 million liters of wine to Singapore, valued at 22.4 million euros—a clear indicator of the growing appreciation for Italian wines in this dynamic market.

This year's Borsa Vini will feature 23 prominent Italian wineries presenting over 100 wine labels, with the objective of engaging local and ASEAN wine professionals, including importers, distributors, and hospitality leaders, through targeted B2B meetings, which have proven instrumental in previous editions. The Italian Trade Agency will also host a distinguished delegation of 15 foreign buyers from Malaysia, Thailand, Vietnam, and the Philippines, broadening commercial opportunities and paving the way for new and fruitful collaborations.

Dante Brandi
Ambassador of Italy to Singapore

It promises to be an enlightening journey, deepening the understanding of Italy's wine culture and showcasing the perfect pairings that elevate the dining experience.

Borsa Vini 2024 exemplifies our dedication to nurturing and strengthening economic and cultural ties with Singapore and the broader ASEAN region. Events like this not only celebrate Italy's rich wine heritage but also open doors to new partnerships and avenues for future growth.

The Alessandro di Camporeale estate extends across the hills of Monreale and Camporeale in western Sicily, surrounded by mountains. The Alessandro family's roots are old: the three brothers Rosolino, Antonino and Natale Alessandro founded the winery, and their children Anna, Benedetto and Benedetto, represent the fourth generation of the family committed to high quality viticulture. 40 hectares of vineyards are lying over an area that benefits from a mild semi-dry climate between 400 and 600 meters above the sea level, with significant temperature variations between day and night and a constant ventilation, allowing an entirely organic viticulture.

Generazione Alessandro is the young project built by the three cousins on the slopes of the volcano Etna. The cellar is located in Linguaglossa, whereas the vineyards extend for about ten hectares on the north-eastern side of the volcano, giving birth to wines with a unique and strong identity.

The story of the winery started with a "reverse migration": Giovanni Battista Cantele and his wife Teresa Manara arrived in Salento from Imola. They were following their dream to build a future for their family in the south, a fertile land of wine and hope. Encouraged by their proud parents Giovanni Battista and Teresa, in 1979 Augusto and Domenico Cantele opened the Cantele winery. It marked the beginning of family's new chapter. From 2001 the winery is held by third generation of the family: Augusto's children Gianni (Enologist & Winemaker) and Paolo (Brand manager) and Domenico's children Umberto (Export manager) and Luisa (Production & Logistic manager).

The winery manages 150 hectares vineyards, farmed using integrated agriculture practices, and produces mostly local grape varieties like Negroamaro, Primitivo, Susumaniello, and Verdeca but also chardonnay with excellent aromatic character due to the apulian unique subsoils and climate.

Tuscany is famously the land of spectacular landscapes and fine wine, but Castello del Terriccio is truly a hidden gem within this region, and a delight to all five senses.

From the estates 1,500 ha of rolling forests, fields of golden grain and vine rows, you can look out over a sapphire sea all the way to Corsica. A symphony of cicadas, hoopoes and the whisper of the sea breeze delights the ears, while the sun caresses your skin. The eucalyptus trees, wild herbs, blackcurrants and warm spices leap out of a glass of Lupicaia, the flagship red wine of the estate. On the palate this incredibly long-lived wine, is elegantly balanced, complex and a true reflection of how well Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot and Petit Verdot grow in the area. This boutique winery only produces four red wines: Tassinaia, Castello del Terriccio, Lupicaia and Gian Annibale, internationally recognized as some of the best so called "super-tuscans".

Nestled along the coastal hills between Pisa and Bolgheri, this is an estate which is rare to come across now: privately owned, where each wine reflects the passion and love of the owner, Vittorio Piozzo di Rosignano Rossi di Medelana.

“Il Borro” extends over an area of 1,100 hectares surrounding a thousand-year-old medieval village in the heart of Tuscany. Today, it is a cutting-edge farm, entirely organic and eco-sustainable since 2015. The pride of the estate are its 85 hectares of vineyards and the 29 of olive groves. Over 272 hectares of fodder and arable land and three hectares of organic horticulture complete the land dedicated to agricultural activities. The Estate was purchased by Ferruccio Ferragamo in 1993, and since then the philosophy inspiring every activity has been that of exalting the characteristics and cultural traditions of the land, according to the principles of sustainability. It boasts a wide range of terroirs, with a sandstone bedrock that lays the basis for a medium-textured soil rich in rock fragments and a sandy-clayey matrix, all present in different combinations throughout the property. This, together with mild winters and optimal exposure, allows us to follow the philosophy of the best suited grape variety for each terroir.

LE MORETTE in Lugana Doc

Le Morette has been a family run winery since 1960, located in Peschiera del Garda, in the heart of the Lugana DOC appellation. Now the third generation is on board, represented by Fabio & Paolo Zenato, running about 50 hectares of land located in Peschiera del Garda and Desenzano del Garda dedicated to Lugana wines with the production of some red full bodied wines as well, produced with Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Corvina grapes. The family also has vineyards in the area of Bardolino, dedicated to the production of Chiaretto di Bardolino DOC, one of the most interesting Italian dry rosè wines obtained by indigenous grape varieties.

CORTE VOLPONI in Valpolicella Classica DOC

Corte Volponi was born in 2010, when Paolo & Fabio Zenato decided to manage a new Estate in the notorious "land of red", the prestigious Valpolicella Wine Area. The family has always been vine-nursers, decided to buy about 5 hectares in Negrar, in the heart of the Valpolicella Classico DOC. The philosophy was the same their grandfather Gino Zenato taught them: to stay in tuned with Mother Nature and keep maximum respect for the territory. With the Brand Corte Volponi the family is proud to produce a top-quality selection of red wines: Valpolicella Classico DOC, Ripasso della Valpolicella Classico DOC, Amarone della Valpolicella DCG and Amarone della Valpolicella DCG Riserva the unique Italian red made with a specific process called "appassimento" and a long wood ageing.

Starting from the 1877, with the establishment of the “first” winery by the great-grandfather, Giacinto Moscone, the family cultivates its land with dedication and respect to obtain healthy and superior quality grapes.

Around the 1950s, the baton was taken up by grandfather Angelo Moscone, who created the first label and, step by step, passed down the tradition to his sons Livio, Giacinto and Mariano.

Today the operations continue expertly also thanks to the latest arrivals of the large Moscone family, the cousins Sara and Marco.

The inestimable fortune is that of working on land with unique and valuable characteristics, the strong point is given by the patience and dedication of our ancestors who were able to pass on, from time to time to the next generation, the passion and the knowledge of this ancient profession .

Today, almost 150 years later, the fourth generation of the family works 21 hectares of owned and considerably historic vineyards capable of giving excellent results through interventions reduced to a minimum, even in unfavorable years.

PALAZZO DI VARIGNANA - HISTORY BEARS ITS FRUIT

Palazzo di Varignana is immersed in the Bolognese hills and the project intends to bring forward values such as tradition, local area and excellence.

The restoration project has expanded over time and, in 2015, the farm was born from the recovery of ancient indigenous crops. The estate consists of vineyards, olive groves, orchards, almond groves and organic saffron. All the crops follow an integrated supply chain system, using products with a low environmental impact, placing quality and the environment center-stage.

Artisanal skills and expert care of the raw material drive Palazzo di Varignana's focus on innovation, leading to the creation of the winery, the cornerstone of the winemaking project. It is a place created to store and preserve the quality fruit produced by nature.

Our wines are the result of a continuously evolving and growing project aiming to the future.

Villa Rubini Winery, where passion and tradition blend to create exceptional wines. Situated in the picturesque Friuli hills, our winery has a rich history rooted in centuries-old winemaking traditions. Nestled amidst rolling hills and fertile vineyards, we carefully cultivate our grapes to produce wines of exceptional quality. Celebrating 500 years of legacy this year. While archaeological findings trace back settlement on the estate to the ancient Roman Empire, it was in 1524 that it first appeared as Tenuta Praducllo. Acquired in 1814 by the Rubini family is known henceforth as Villa Rubini estate. Since then, generation after generation has nurtured and elevated the vineyards, culminating in the exquisite wines we offer today. In 2021, a new chapter unfolded as Dimitri Pintar assumed stewardship, taking over the best crus of Vigna Aratorio della Tesa, Vigna Pra del Molino, and Vigna Aratorio di Praducllo. With a commitment to excellence, we employ a careful blend of traditional and innovative techniques to craft wines that embody the essence of our terroir. From crisp whites to bold reds, our diverse portfolio caters to every palate. We hope you will soon have the chance to visit our charming estate, immerse yourself in the beauty of our vineyards, and indulge in a wine tasting journey. Please feel free to contact me to learn more about our wines and experience the magic of Villa Rubini Winery.

Villa Canestrari was established in the Illasi Valley, between the towns of Colognola ai Colli and Illasi, thanks to the union of the Franchi and Bonuzzi families, both guardians of a long winemaking tradition that has lasted for over 130 years. The area's diverse microclimates and the old indigenous grape varieties allow the winery to enhance the wines of the Soave and Valpolicella regions, including Soave, Ripasso and Amarone. In Illasi, the VILLA CANESTRARI WINE MUSEUM was created to testify the long winemaking tradition of the two families, which began in 1888.

Villa La Ripa is a winery located in Antria, near Arezzo, in Tuscany.

All the winemaking process is followed by our winemaker with passion and respect for the grapes, in aim to obtain every year high-quality wines.

Dr. Saverio Luzzi, bought the Renaissance Villa, built-in 1558, in 1992 and he got his passion in winemaking, as he started producing his own wine in 2000.

The cultivations of Villa La Ripa are part of the Chianti Colli Aretini sub-zone, taking advantage of a slightly sloping and medium-textured land located in a fairly windy area, between two small streams.

What matters the most is the people's passion and that's why, during the harvest season, the owners are in direct contact with the fermenting process all day and night long, being anxious to follow the evolution of the musts transformed into wine.
