Trade Tasting with 54 Italian producers

More than 50 of Italy's finest wine producers are heading to London on October 4, showcasing their wines at the eagerly anticipated Borsa Vini Italiani event.

Organised by the Italian Trade Agency, the event will feature producers from Italy's major wine regions with over 300 wines. Many of them are seeking distribution for the first time.

The tasting takes place at the Science Museum's Illuminate from 10.30am to 6pm.

Strictly for trade and selected members of the press.

If you are a UK-based wine or drink business and would like to attend,

ITA London director Giovanni Sacchi says: “The UK market is a major destination for Italian wine exports, and this year’s trade figures prove this yet again with an increase of almost 14% year-on-year of the value of Italian wine exports to the UK in 2022. With an increase in the number of producers present compared with last year, taking it to 54, we are confident that this year’s Borsa Vini Italiani will be fruitful in encouraging new business partnerships to strengthen and widen the presence of Italian wines in this country.”
