To say that we are a Murano glass chandelier factory is a bit too short-sighted. We are dream makers, builders of the magic of light. Our glass and crystal chandeliers are unique, exclusive creations of exquisite taste. They are lighting works that fear neither time nor fashion: They unite at the heart of glass the timeless art of beauty, the history of harmonious proportions, the repositioning of consolidated forms in new design and project research.

What is OVO and when was it born? OVO is an Art Design brand born from the synergy of Maurizio Orrico and Enrica Vulcano.

Even before having a name, it came to life, as an idea and almost for fun, from experiments on the oxidation of metals carried out in relation to Maurizio's artistic research, and transported into the world of design thanks to Enrica's intuition: we are in May of 2018. OVO's first official work is the table setting created for LIBERI DENTRO, The Last Supper - Homage to Leonardo Da Vinci, an art and social design project, curated by Giacinto Di Pietrantonio, which involved great artists and designers.

Since 2021, OVO has started to participate in various trade fairs such as Maison et Object, Ambiente Frankfurt and Find Singapore Asia.
